Building the Good Society. Dumas, Lloyd

Leading political economist Lloyd J. Dumas presents a pragmatic alternative view of a society that is capable of maximizing individual freedoms and producing sustained prosperity while preserving socially responsible behavior.

Development of Political Institutions. Ferrara, Federico

Federico Ferrara takes a "historical institutionalist" approach to theorize dynamic processes of institutional reproduction, institutional decay, and institutional change in explaining the development of political institutions.

Political Thoughts and the Origin of the American Presidency. Lowe, Ben

This volume examines the political ideas behind the construction of the presidency in the U.S. Constitution, as well as how these ideas were implemented by the nation's early presidents.

Teaching Political Science to Undergraduates. Paquette, Lauren

This book answers the question how university students can learn in the classroom what they cannot learn in any other way in political science.

"This book is an augmented adaptation of the author's 2018 book Understanding Left and Right (Nova). It further reinforces the message that sustained truth-seeking leads people toward the political center.
